If you know someone who is being abused...

- * Do not ignore it.
- * Talk to them, let them know that you are aware of the situation.
- * Be a good listener, let them express the hurt, anger and fear.
- * Do not judge them.
- * If possible, offer them a safe place to stay, transportation or childcare.
- * Encourage them to make their own decisions, even if you do not agree with them.
- * Hold the abuser accountable for his/her actions

Domestic Violence

Understanding the problem is the first step towards solving it.

What you should know...

What is Domestic Violence?

Domestic Violence is a pattern of abusive behavior. In an abusive relationship one partner tries to maintain control over the other by using physical, psychological, verbal, and sexual violence. Although factors such as drug and alcohol use, stress, or a family history of abuse may contribute to the problem, domestic violence is primarily an issue of power and control.

Abuse may include...

- * Hitting, kicking, pushing, slapping, choking, punching, biting
- * Constant jealousy and control
- * Threats
- * Forced sex
- * Isolation from family/friends
- * Economic control
- * Destruction of personal property
- * Excessive criticism
- * Extreme anger
- * Withholding medication
- * Using race, age, sexual identity, immigration status, class, appearance, religion, HIV status, etc. against you.

If you are being abused...

- * Call 911 if you are in danger.
- * Talk with a friend, relative, anyone you trust and think will be supportive.
- * Call a domestic violence hotline for information, support, and safety planning.
- * Talk to a health care provider about your injuries.
- * Call a shelter and find out about options available to you.
- * Create a personalized safety plan.
- * Pack an emergency bag containing an extra set of clothing, extra cash, identification (such as birth certificates, social security cards, immunization records), financial records, keys (house/car), address book, etc. Keep the bag in a safe place, where the abuser will not find it.
- * Keep a cell phone or change for phone calls with you at all times.
- * Fill out the form on the next page & tear it off the brochure. Keep it in a place where the abuser will not find it.

Remember, you are not alone.

No one deserves to be abused.

Increase your safety by...

- * Talking to a DV Advocate about your situation.
- * Obtaining a Protection From Abuse Order (PFA) and keeping it with you at all times. Giving copies to friends, neighbors, your work.
- * Doing whatever it takes to form your own support network (attend support groups, get counseling).
- * Changing the locks.
- * Installing as many security features as possible in your home (alarm system, smoke detectors, motion detector lights).
- * Making sure that childcare givers are clear about who has permission to pick up your children.
- * Using an answering machine at home to screen your calls and having calls at work screened.
- * Avoiding places that the abuser knows you will be (grocery stores, banks, businesses, etc).
- * Letting your neighbors, friends, family, co-workers know about the situation, ask them to warn you if they observe that the abuser is around.
